Roxbury, May 31, 1875.

My dear Winchell:

There will be sent to your house to-day a very chaste and well-executed figure of "Venus and the Shell," which you and your dear wife will please accept as a slight token of the warm regards of Fanny and myself (the latter including Mrs. G., of course) for your entire family, and with our congratulations on the 25th anniversary of your wedded life, and our best wishes for your future happiness.

Affectionately yours,

Wm. Lloyd Garrison.
